I have a Degree in Earth Sciences, now what the heck do I do?

Matt Schumacher

M.Sc., University of Waterloo

As a student you have been devoting yourself to acquiring the skills and knowledge necessary for a career in the geosciences, but what else is there to know? Five years after receiving his bachelor's degree and almost three years after graduating with his masters, Matt Schumacher will be sharing his experience of what it has been like as a recent Earth Sciences graduate and finding work in the “real world”.

All are welcome.
